Rejustification of South China, North Vietnam Coverage

50X1

1. The Chairman called a special meeting to prepare a rejustification for coverage of South China, North Vietnam and preparation for the Special Group's reconsideration of that problem and Communist Chinese coverage generally. The Committee agreed on the rejustification as set forth in COMOR-D-25/2, which has been issued for file and reference.

Navy Request for Further Downgrading

2. The Committee took note of the Navy request (see Ser NT-000121, 7 June 1961) which proposes that downgrading be permitted for the materials acquired over Indochina in January 1961 and the three missions in 1961 over Communist China and Tibet.
